

30 March 2007

The Department of Health Response to the Question on Returning Holiday Illnesses Costs to the NHS

The Department of Health advise that they do not collate centrally any data as to the cost of returning holidaymakers illnesses on the NHS. They suggest that we contact each Primary Care Trust in the UK to retrieve such information. It appears that the Department of Health only collate such data on "overseas visitors".

Summary by HolidayTravelWatch
30 March 2007